PRINCIPAL MATTERS

Parents and Friends Association

On behalf of the school community, I would like to thank our PFA for the valuable contribution it makes to our school every year. Kirsty Iles, as president in 2014 worked tirelessly to ensure a variety of fundraising activities occurred to support our school. When speaking to neighbouring school principals, it becomes clear that our community is extremely generous when it comes to raising funds for our students. Last year a total of $85,644.71 was raised over the course of the year. After expenses were paid the funds totalled approximately $65,000 from which to buy resources for the school.

Students have enjoyed the use of:

Sixteen Dell computers for classrooms
I pads for Prep to year 2 students
Equipment for the Media room

An upgrade to the canteen will ensure students and canteen volunteers have a suitable space and equipment in which to prepare food from the school vegetable garden and student lunches.

To ensure our children have an understanding of the privileged community in which we live, the Parents and Friend Association also donated $10,000 to the Government School Charity – State Schools Relief.

We are again seeking the support of our school community to become involved in the PFA. With approximately 850 parents in our school, I'm sure we can:

Recruit a generous number of volunteers from our community
Determine the skills of our community members
Prepare a data base of the various ways in which our parents are able support the school
Seek suggestions for possible social gatherings our community could host
Seek suggestions for fundraising activities that might be energy (human) efficient and profitable

Please consider ways in which you could assist in building our sense of community through school involvement, since without commitment from a large proportion of our 850 parents, it will not be possible to continue the current level of fundraising for our school.

Further information will be sought through the Publicity and Marketing Sub Committee as well as through level newsletters.

School Uniform

Congratulations to all students who continually wear correct school uniform. I ask parents to please ensure that children are wearing the correct uniform to school each day. The Junior School Council will be undertaking regular school uniforms checks to encourage all students to wear the Toorak Primary School uniform proudly. Once again, teachers will be discussing correct uniform with all students. Leggings and coloured skivvies underneath polo shirts are not consistent with the uniform policy so please support the school by ensuring that each child is wearing our uniform correctly. The rationale for our, "School Uniform Policy" states, "The wearing of a school uniform promotes a sense of identity and pride for students and ensures that students are dressed safely and appropriately for school activities. A school uniform also allows all students to feel equal and prevents bullying and competition on the basis of clothing worn. It can also strengthen the spirit of community within the school as well as enhance the profile and identity of the school and its students within the wider community."

Road Safety

Recently a letter from Stonnington Council advised the school of measures taken to encourage safe driving practices around schools. The letter states, "As part of its endeavours, City of Stonnington has installed a variety of treatments around primary schools. These include traffic calming devices, line marking and parking restriction signs. City of Stonnington also employs officers to enforce parking laws and contributes to the cost of employing school crossing supervisors." Our school will investigate a supervised crossing on Brookville Road for the safety of the school community. A parking map has been made available to provide accurate details of parking availability. Please set a good example for our students by abiding by the road rules.

School Council

The first School Council meeting for 2015 was held on February 24th. Office Bearers for 2015:

NUMERACY TEAM

Curriculum Update:

With all the students settled back in, routines established, and assessments undertaken, math groups are up and running across the school! Our students have begun their daily numeracy lessons by working in needs based groups several times a week, as well as participating in class maths activities. Our preps have begun *, while our more experienced students are consolidating their knowledge of place value and the four operations in order to provide the foundation for the year's numeracy curriculum

Games to Play At Home:

As important as it is to practice reading every night, it's equally important to work on your child's maths skills on a daily basis. Here are a few games you can play using a deck of cards that will help develop mental maths abilities!

Both games require face cards to be removed and a stopwatch for timing

Make 10 (Early Years)

Make a pile with a set number of face-down cards

Begin timer

When the first card is flipped face-up, the player must say what number is needed to be added to Make 10 (

Repeat through entire pile, time result. Play again and try to improve time it takes to get through the set.

Two-Pile Multiplication (Later Years)

Make piles of cards with equal numbers of cards in each

Simultaneously flip the top card on each pile. The player must multiply the 2 numbers and say the product. Repeat through entire pile. Play again and try to improve time it takes to get through the set

To make the game harder: Leave the face cards in, and have Jack = 11, Queen =12, and King=13*

Resource Room

The Numeracy Team is hard at work organising the great resources we have at TPS! We have created a resource room to store all our fantastic maths equipment in a central location. Shelves have been built and our equipment collected in order to develop a streamlined process of getting materials for hands-on maths lessons.

If you are a person with good organizational skills and would like to help us with our task of organising, barcoding, shelving, and auditing our great resources, the maths team could use your help! Please see Mr Carota if you have some time and are interested in helping us with this important task.

SWIMMING LESSONS

From March 2nd to March 13th the students from Grade 3-6 will be participating in swimming lessons. This year we will be doing the lessons at King Swim in St Kilda. The students will be bussed over and back each day for the 2 weeks (except for Labor Day on March 9th). We will be seeking parental help to supervise the students. Please see your child's classroom teacher if you are able to help. More detailed times will be sent out closer to the start of the program. Swimming is an important part of life in Australia and we encourage as many students as possible to be involved in learning this important life skill.

The Prep - Grade 2 students will be attending their swimming lessons in Term 4.

NEWS FROM THE OFFICE

COMPASS

TPS has launched a new parent portal called COMPASS. Compass will enable you to access your child's attendance data and enter absences, approve your child's absences online, provide parent consent for excursions and pay for school fee's, excursions and camps securely online. All TPS families should have received a letter detailing your username and password to log into COMPASS. To access COMPASS, go to <https://toorakps.vic.jdlf.com.au/> or use the link on the TPS webpage located at www.toorakps.vic.edu.au. Click on the link and follow the prompts using your login details. It is important that you retain your login details and keep them secure for future use. If you are having problems logging in to COMPASS, you may need to reset your password.

TPS WEBSITE

TPS launched our new website at the beginning of the year. I encourage you to take the time to view our website as it has up to date information on events and excursions specific to your children. All you need to do is click on the Skoolbag App logo located on the home page to view a detailed calendar. Excursion levies, timetables and other relevant information to your grade level can also be seen by clicking on the Junior, Middle and Senior school tabs on the home page. The fortnightly newsletter is also published on the website.

Our first tuckshop for 2015 will commence on Wednesday 11 March. Tuckshop forms will go home in students bags on Tuesday 3 March. These forms will need to be completed and brought back to the office with payment by end of day Friday 6 March. Could we ask that the name of your child and grade be clearly visible as office staff need to sort orders into grade levels. We hope that COMPASS will be able to provide us with a tuckshop payment option in the not too distant future. Tuckshop

V5 CFMD141 January 2015

SPECIAL RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

Special Religious Instruction – Parent Consent Information

The provision of Special Religious Instruction (SRI), delivered by churches and other religious groups, in government schools is authorised under section 2.2.11 of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006.

Special Religious Instruction Policy

SRI can only be offered and delivered in accordance with Department policy and Ministerial Direction MD141. SRI can be offered where an accredited and approved volunteer religious instructor(s) has approached a school and where a school has the resources to comply with legal requirements and ensure that duty of care obligations are met to all students during SRI. SRI may be offered for no more than an average of 30 minutes per week.

Schools provide parents with this form if approached by an accredited and approved SRI volunteer. Once this form has been provided to parents, and returned forms compiled, the principal will decide whether there are sufficient resources to enable SRI to be offered at the school.

MD141 and the policy are available online at <http://www.education.vic.gov.au/about/department/legislation/Pages/sri.aspx>
<http://www.education.vic.gov.au/school/principals/spag/curriculum/pages/religious.aspx>

What is Special Religious Instruction?

SRI is instruction in the specific religious beliefs and tenets of a religion, and is not to be confused with General Religious Education (GRE). GRE is education about religions (which may or may not include using representatives of a particular faith to explain the workings and belief structure of their religion), whereas SRI programs are instruction in a particular religion and may include scriptural studies, and instruction in how to live and behave according to the tenets of the particular faith.

SRI does not provide an overview of all faiths or religions. Each particular SRI offering is instruction in one faith only, provided by a church or other religious group. Given the religious nature of the program, the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development does not endorse program content used to deliver SRI by accredited volunteer instructors.

Who delivers Special Religious Instruction?

Special Religious Instruction is available to schools in a range of faiths including Christianity, Catholicism, Orthodox Christianity, Judaism, Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, Bah'ai, and Sikhism. The religions available to schools will vary depending on whether any instructors approach the school. Currently the providers accredit the volunteer Special Religious Instructors are:

Religion	Agency/Provider	Provider website for further information	Provider phone number
Christianity	ACCESS Ministries	http://www.accessministries.org.au/	1800 063 341
Judaism	United Jewish Education Board	http://www.ujeb.org.au/	9038 5028

Volunteer instructors are associated with a church or religious organisation. Their role is not that of a teacher. To obtain accreditation, they must have undertaken training through one of the providers listed above, and signed up to a code of conduct which outlines how they are to conduct themselves in a government school. It is a requirement of accreditation that volunteers have a valid Working With Children Check.

Participation in Special Religious Instruction

Participation in Special Religious Instruction is voluntary. Schools cannot place children in SRI unless parental consent is provided for a child to participate (opt-in). SRI materials are generally available online and via the agency delivering SRI for parents to review.

Parents are requested to complete and return this form to the school if they wish their child to participate in SRI, should it be offered at the school. If this form is not returned, the child will not participate in SRI, should it be offered. Students not participating in SRI will be engaged in educationally valuable activities that are outside the core curriculum in a separate classroom or learning space to the students participating in SRI.

You may withdraw your child/children from Special Religious Instruction at any time by notifying the school principal in writing.
